DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 24-25, 30-32, 38 and 43-49 are pending.
2. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
3. Proposed amendment to the claims, limiting the primer sizes to 21-23 nucleotides long, which would have made the claims allowable, were faxed to Applicant's representative Anne-Marie Yvon on 12 November 2004. However, these examiner's amendments were not accepted.
4. The rejection of claims 24-26, 30-32 and 34-42 under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, for new matter is withdrawn in light of applicant's amendment or cancellation of the claims.
5. The rejection of claims 37-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, for new matter is withdrawn in light of applicant's amendment or cancellation of the claims.
6. The rejection of claims 24-26, 30-32 and 34-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter that Applicant regards as the invention is withdrawn in light of applicant's amendment or cancellation of the claims.

Claim Objections

7. Claim 48 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. The kit of claim 48 fails to further limit the kit of claim 30; both kits comprise only primers. The primers do not differ according to what kind of plant material the primers are used on. It is noted that the plant material is not part of the kit.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

8. Claims 24-25, 30-32, 38, 43 and 47-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, because the specification, while being enabling for a method of identifying elite event MS-B2 in transgenic Brassica or confirming seed purity using TAIL-PCR and primers SEQ ID NOs:4-7 and 9 or PCR using SEQ ID NOs:11-12 or 13-14, does not reasonably provide enablement for a method of identifying elite event MS-B2 in transgenic Brassica or confirming seed purity using PCR with any primer or using any other hybridization method. The specification does not enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention commensurate in scope with these claims. The rejection is repeated for the reasons of record as set forth in the Office action mailed 26 August 2004, as applied to claims 24-26, 30-32 and 34-42. Applicant's arguments filed 18 February 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant urges that the claims have been amended to emphasize that the PCR is performed with MS-B2 specific primer pairs and that the product is MS-B2 specific (response pg 8-9).

This is not found persuasive. Only primers between 21-23 nucleotides are exemplified. The specification does not teach other primers that specifically amplify MS-B2 event DNA, as opposed to other DNA in the Brassica genome. The specification does not provide guidance for primers within the full scope of the claims.

Applicant urges that specific portions of SEQ ID NOs:8 and 10 are now recited that that claims directed to a DNA molecule encoding the protein of SEQ ID NO:X are frequently granted; thus, claims to a very large genus are granted (response pg 9).

This is not found persuasive. Because DNA codons are known, every DNA that encodes a protein of SEQ ID NO:X will function. However, not all "consecutive nucleotides", which includes 2-nucleotide long sequences, of SEQ ID NOS:8 or 10 will function as PCR primers to amplify an MS-BS specific DNA fragment. The specification must teach which ones will function. The only ones that the specification teaches are 21-23 nucleotides long.

9. Claims 24-25, 30-32, 38, 43 and 47-49 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter that was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The rejection is repeated for the reasons of record as set forth in the Office action mailed 26 August 2004, as applied to claims 24-26, 30-32 and 34-42. Applicant's, in the response filed 18 February 2004, did not address this rejection.

10. Claims 44-46 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
